Number of days of authorized absence (AA) used by each healthcare provider (MD, DO, NP, PA) for each provider in the Emergency Department for the years 2008-2013. Without seeing the data, I would suggest that you make a determination on this once you have the data in front of you. You may decide to release the statistics without tying them to a specific provider, etc. 2. Purpose for which those authorized days were used by each provider. You will want to consider the balancing test for exemption 6 and if you determine there is no public interest then you can withhold under exemption 6. However, I would not protect those that are on authorized absence for VA travel. 3. Their names and grades, whether full-time or part-time. Yes, this is releasable.	8/30/2013

It does not include high-level HR officials responsible for a single HR program/function (e.g., Director of Training and Development or Director of Recruitment and Staffing).
